

ONLY IN BOP!

Behind the Scenes on The Troop Set!

BOP hung out with the cast on the show's set in Vancouver, Canada. Check out our EXCLUSIVE day with everyone!

The cast of Nickelodeon's The Troop only invited BOP to their set in Vancouver, Canada, to hang out with the new cast! For Season two, True Jackson, VP's Matt Shively and The Vampire Diaries' Malese Jow are joining the show, and the four costars have already become BFFs. We hung out with them all day during a photo shoot for the new season!

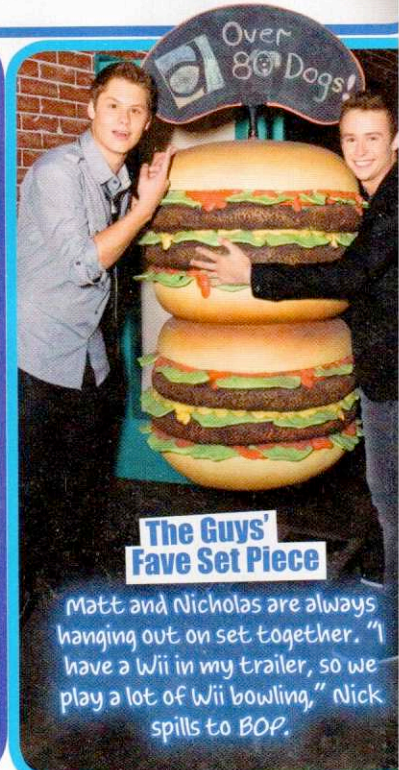

Malese's OMG Moment!

Right after this pic was snapped, Malese tripped! She laughed it off and told us, "Well, there's an embarrassing moment!"

Cast Photos on the Headquarters Set

To make this set look extra cool, they used a fog machine! "I love the way the fog looks!" Matt smiled while he looked at the photos with the photographer. In between pictures, the cast danced to Usher and Katy Perry songs!

The Guys' Fave Set Piece

Matt and Nicholas are always hanging out on set together. "I have a Wii in my trailer, so we play a lot of Wii bowling," Nick spills to BOP.

Malese and Gage Get Silly

On The Troop, the characters fight monsters with these guns! "I love being on this show because I get to do a lot of cool stunts," Gage spilled to us.

Wardrobe Time!

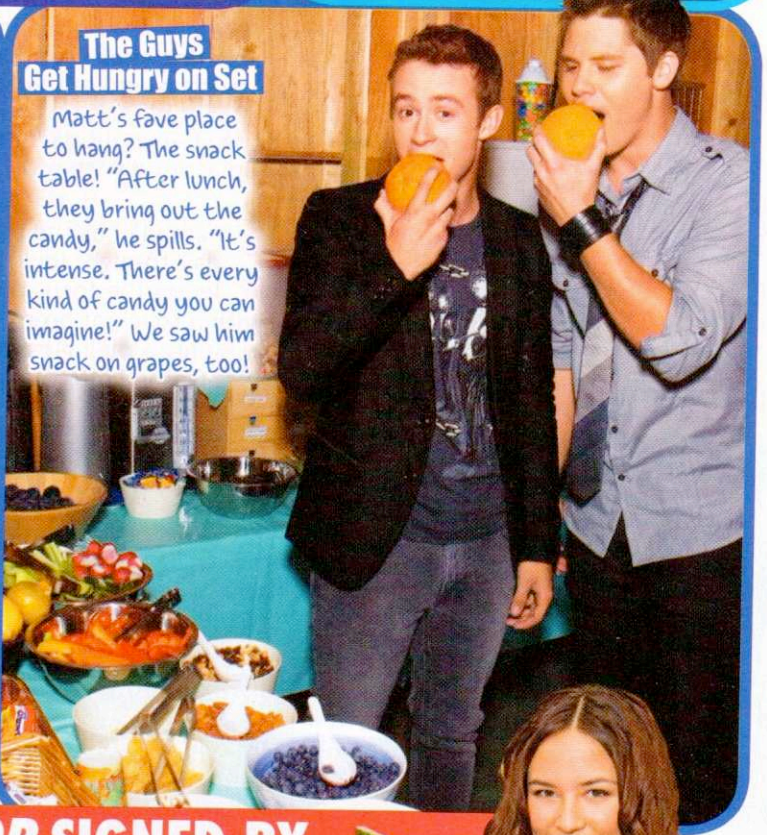

On set, there's a whole room for clothes, hair and makeup! The girls have a wardrobe secret: Malese wears heels, and Gage wears flats because she's so tall!

Gage wore her UGG slippers between photos!

Taking Solo Pix!

Gage, who had to take breaks for school (she's a senior!), told us she loves photo shoots. "I get to be a life-size Barbie for a day, get my hair and makeup done and wear cute clothes," she smiles.

The Guys Get Hungry on Set

Matt's fave place to hang? The snack table! "After lunch, they bring out the candy," he spills. "It's intense. There's every kind of candy you can imagine!" We saw him snack on grapes, too!
